

May Worship Schedule

9:00

Ushers: Kelly Fritzinger, Brenda Bougher, Wayne Schaeffer

Acolyte: Daniel Netzbaum

- May 2 Holy Communion
Lay Reader: Harry Hodge
- May 9 Mother's Day
Lay Reader: Mert Horning
- May 16 Lay Reader: Betsy Laub
- May 23 Pentecost
Lay Reader: Kathy Haas
- May 30 Trinity Sunday
Memorial Day Sunday
Lay Reader: Jim Pudleiner

Mother's Day – May 9

During our Worship service we will recognize our newest and our oldest mother.

Pentecost - May 23

Pentecost is the 50th day from Easter, commemorating the descending of the Holy Spirit upon the followers of Jesus. Wear red to church!

Trinity Sunday – Memorial Day Sunday – May 30

Death – Rebecca Lynne Bitting

Rebecca died at home on March 28th surrounded by loved ones. Services for Rebecca were held at Morgenland Church on April 7th. She was the wife of Jared, mother of Logan, daughter of Barry and Elaine Werley.

From the Pastor,

In a culture that continually promotes the idea that more is better, finding contentment feels like an uphill battle. There is always something that lures you into thinking that if only you had that, if you could only go there, if you could just live the way they do, then you would be satisfied.

But people who have found true contentment know that acquiring “more” never satisfies. True contentment comes when you realize that in your life with God, you already have everything you will ever need and then some. Becoming content with your life is not an impossible goal to strive for; it is a reality that is available to you now.

Gratitude for what God has already you is an essential element in learning to be content. Thank God for His provision, and rest in the knowledge that God will continue to provide. Ask God to make you more aware each day of the abundance you already have, appreciating how little it takes to lead a truly satisfied life.

When you view your possessions – and your desire for more – from God’s perspective, you will also begin to identify those things in your life that have eternal value – and you will discover that that is where true contentment lies.

God’s Blessings!

Pastor Zelker